

First Through the Fire

by Talbert Gray

edited by Tim Trott

Interview questions:

- What barriers did you face growing up in Memphis, Tennessee in the sixties?
- Where did you begin your photography and videography career? (military)
- How did you become the first black television news reporter in Florida? (WESH, 1970,
- What was that like? (interviewing the Klan, dealing with a racist sheriff)
- You went from television into video production. What were some of those notable experiences? (Kissimmee, Florida Chamber of Commerce)
- After that you moved to managing radio stations. How did that come about?
- Your media experience included several publishing ventures. What was your motivation there?

The book is First Through the Fire by Talbert Gray, and it's available at Amazon.com in both paperback and epub editions.